

QUESTIONS

1. Do you have the money to seek emergency accommodation? Step forward.

Financial resources are crucial for securing immediate shelter and safety.

2. Do you have the backup of your family to support you? Step forward.

Family support networks provide crucial assistance during times of crisis.

3. Have you lost your livelihood, and does your country have social insurance?

Step forward.

Social insurance programs can provide financial support to affected individuals.

4. Does your country have a rescue service to rescue you? Step forward. Access to professional rescue services is essential for saving lives during emergencies.

5. Does your country have a reliable weather service, and can you access up-to- date information online? Step forward.

Timely weather information is crucial for preparedness.

6. Is there a reliable water source in your community? Step forward.

Access to clean water is fundamental for survival during disasters.

7. Do you have access to financial resources to mitigate the impact of the disaster and rebuild? Step forward.

Financial resources are vital for rebuilding efforts after a disaster.

8. Are you healthy, and do you have access to a medical facility or mental health support services? Step forward.

Physical & mental health support is critical for well-being during & after disasters.

9. Do you have a disability or injury, can you walk to get help? Step forward.

Access to medical care is essential to address injuries and survival in a disaster.

10. Do you feel safe in your community and are national or local police actively maintaining safety? Step forward.

Law enforcement are critical for maintaining security during disasters.

11. Are you eligible for a loan from the bank to rebuild your home? Step forward.

Financial assistance is essential for recovery after disasters.

12. Has the infrastructure in your community been badly damaged? Step forward.

Functional infrastructure are important for stability and recovery after disasters.

13. Do you have access to reliable transportation to evacuate if needed, and does your community have established evacuation routes and shelters? Step forward.

Access to transportation and established evacuation plans are critical for safe evacuation and sheltering during disasters.

14. Are you loved? Step forward.

Social support is important for emotional well-being during and after disasters.